have a protecting tongue (patented) beneath the lacing—a most important feature in the comfort of a front lace model.

The clasps of the Redfern front lace corsets are ground thin at the top, making them soft and flexible, so that they cannot press or irritate, regardless of the posture.

Despite advancing costs, we shall hold, as usual, beginning tomorrow, OUR ANNUAL $30 FALL SUIT WEEK!

—and submit for your approval a most wonderful range of suit styles, materials and colorings for ladies and misses for your choice.

It has taken many weeks of hard work to be able to make this announcement today. Good materials are scarce, everybody is talking high prices. But always keeping before us our high standards of quality in materials and workmanship, we persisted in our determination to include all the new Fall styles, as usual, in this event, and we take very great pleasure in being able to announce a greater number of different styles than ever before for you to choose from.

No. 1—Smart Velour suit for misses or small women, is high waisted and the clever side panel has the new cascade drapery. The fur-trimmed collar can be worn high or low. Two-piece suit with button-trimmed skirt. Navy, black, brown, green and burgundy.

No. 2—Gabardine suit, with velvet and braid trimmings. Jacket is fashioned in the new longer lines, slightly fitted. The skirt has plaited side panel, with loose-fitting giraffe. Navy, green, black and brown.

No. 3—Gabardine suit; Jacket is Russian effect, with smart plaited side panel and button-trimmed belt. The large shoulder collar is velvet trimmed and can be worn buttoned or open at the neck. The full skirt is plaited at the sides. Navy, green, black and brown.

No. 4—Broadcloth suit, with fur trimmings, showing the new straight line jacket, with ripple flare from the waist down. The skirt is straight and smart, with just the correct amount of fullness. Burgundy, purple, navy, green and black.

No. 5—Whipcord suit, medium length jacket. The back is semi-gathered, quite simple, yet very different from other styles. The collar may be worn showing or closed. The skirt is closely buttoned at the waist. Skirt is full with gathered back. Navy, green and black.

No. 6—Poirot suit. The jacket is long and gathered at the waist line. Finished with clever, tabs of self material, button trimmed. The full skirt has a gathered back with button-trimmed belt. Navy and black.

The few styles pictured are merely representative. There are many others, for this is an all-style season and you may choose a style to suit your type.

new effects when coats are buttoned high.

Fur Trimmings (Mostly flat fur), braid and velvet trimmings; fancy stitching, differently fashioned cuffs and pockets.

Skirts With gathered backs, side yokes, panel and cluster side plaits; two-piece skirts; a variety of pocket styles and belts suggestive of the military.

Velours and broadcloths are most talked of and are widely represented here, but the good serges, gabardines, whipcord and Poirot twill are equally popular and more serviceable.

Colors at $30

Plum and Burgundy, the most-talked-of shades; rubber gray, navy, green, light and dark navy and black.

SPORTS Misses' Jersey Suits at $30

Wooltex Suits at $30

Prominent in $30.00 Suit week are our Wooltex Suits—the styles more elaborate than ever before.
